RE: AIDGC Membership

Dear Scott,

This is to confirm your status as a full financial member of the Australasian Institute of Dangerous Goods Consultants (AIDGC) to June 2015.

During this period of membership the Institute confirms that you have successfully met the membership criteria for consulting members including:

- a) Ongoing professional development;
- b) Successful completion of an examination based on dangerous goods legislation and practice;
- c) Provision of sufficiently documented evidence of experience in the dangerous goods storage and handling industry.

As an consulting member you are bound by the constitution to meet the high ethical and professional standards relating to your undertakings as both a dangerous goods consultant and member of the Institute.

Best Regards,

Len Gawecki

President
